Subd to Mr. member

In the register of rent free grants, the temple of Venugopalaswami is specifically mentioned as one of the institutions for the benefit of which the grant of the Parakala Swaruyam was made and in fact the present Mr. Little one member of the Parakala Swaruyam is the hereditary trustee of the temple. It appears to be legitimate to infer from the entries in the Register that the temple should be in the management of the Mathas, the usual 'manager pro tem' being omitted in designating the latter.

The melvaram referred in question of Rs. 8. 12 represents a very small portion of the Jodi which the temple is enjoying through the Parakala Matha and it may be handed over to the manager, the Rajaguru continuing in the hereditary.

Sir

With reference to your letter No. 2012/ Muzrai H 478-08-4 dated 27-2-1912 observing that no stipend orders need be issued in favor of the servants of the muzrai institutions and adding that unless the right of Sree Parakalaswami mutt to appoint the manager of the Sri Venugopalaswamy temple at Muthalvadi in T. Narasipura Taluk is recognized the payment should not be made, I have the honor to state that the agent of Sri Parakalaswami mutt in his yadi no: 49/482 dated 21-12-1914 stated that no written documents establishing the right of the mutt in the matter are forthcoming, and that payments may be made to the mutt as per usage long in vogue

2. I inspected this temple in February last. The temple, if not actually within the limits of Kargally, an inam village of the Parakala matha is on the borderline between this village and the Government village of Muttalvadi and in continuation of Krishnapura agraharam a hamlet of Kargally.

3. The mutt is getting an annual grant of Rs 549-12-0 in this Taluk and I learnt that all this amount is spent for the maintainance and puja of a previous Swamis Brindavana at Krishnapura and for puja in the temple under advertance.

(Vide also 4g P)

In these circumstances I recommend that the grant to the temple may be made over to the mutt so long as their management is satisfactory. The arrear

also be paid to the mutt
